

Declaration of Independence

IN CONGRESS JULY 4th. 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America

When in the course of these events we found it necessary to declare the political bond which has connected these colonies with Great Britain, we have, among the people of the world, the opinion that we are entitled to the same rights and privileges as the people of Great Britain.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.
