Joy in Medicine? Eve Shapiro,2020-11-02 Eve Shapiro has been writing about patient centered care physician patient communication and relationships between doctors and their patients since 2007 In Joy in Medicine What 100 Healthcare Professionals Have to Say about Job Satisfaction Dissatisfaction Burnout and Joy Eve turns her attention to those on the healthcare delivery side of this sacred interaction These healthcare professionals share their enthusiasm joys frustrations disappointments insights advice stories fears and pain explaining how it looks and feels to work in healthcare today no matter who you are where you work or what your position is in the organizational hierarchy The healthcare professionals who provide patient care deserve our collective interest in their humanity Without some insight into who they are and the forces with which they struggle every day we cannot fully appreciate the obstacles to providing the care we all want for ourselves and our families during the best of times let alone in the uncertain times that lie ahead Advanced Consulting in Family Medicine Peter Worrall,Adrian French,Les Ashton,2016-07-06 What distinguishes the consulting of experienced family doctors from their newly qualified colleagues The question is often frustratingly hard answer clearly or objectively unlike many professions family doctors face a dearth of clear expectations of what constitutes advanced practice a lack of defined standards against which to evaluate it and an absence of expertise related professional training in which to develop it post certification The model of consultation excellence outlined in this book illustrates in practical terms how advanced consulting can be nurtured It avoids tantalising value judgement such as excellence Instead it describes behaviours in terms that can be observed day to day providing a detailed picture of what constitutes advanced consulting behaviour how family doctors can be helped to acquire these higher levels of expertise and how changes in behaviour can be identified and evaluated Advanced Consulting in Family Medicine is written in handbook form for easy access and use and provides a vital vision of higher order family doctor consulting Congressional Record United States. Congress,1999 Mind in Nature ,1886 Psychodynamic Psychotherapy Deborah L. Cabaniss,2016-07-26 An updated and expanded new edition of a widely used guide to the theory and practice of psychodynamic psychotherapy Cabaniss Psychodynamic Psychotherapy A Clinical Manual 2nd Edition provides material for readers to apply immediately in their treatment of patients This expanded and updated edition of a widely used practical guide to psychodynamic psychotherapy provides material that readers can apply immediately in their treatment of patients It is built around a unique and proven approach that clearly teaches psychodynamic psychotherapy using three key steps listening reflecting and intervening These are applied to all aspects of treatment and supported by core psychotherapeutic concepts such as evaluation empathic listening and setting the frame The Second Edition has been fully revised to reflect the latest developments in the field While retaining the structure clarity and relevance that have made this one of the most popular texts in its field the authors have added new research a wealth of new exercises and an educators guide to help teachers and program directors make best use of the book in training programs The result is an invaluable resource for those seeking to teach understand and practice psychodynamic psychotherapy

Shared Struggles Ann F. Schrooten, Barry P. Markovitz, 2021-04-27 This book tells true and poignant stories from both sides of the physician patient parent relationship and provides a unique glimpse into how parents and physicians think feel and interact The stories are grouped under four sections Hope Compassion Communication and Trust Each section includes stories contributed by parents from all across the United States and by pediatricians practicing at many of the best children s hospitals throughout the country The parents tell of interactions with physicians that had a significant impact on them and their child and offer context and insight that promote empathy and reflection The physicians tell of interactions with patients and families that served as learning moments in their career and promote the humanization of medicine and show there is more to a physician beyond their scientific knowledge and white coat The stories are edited by Barry P Markovitz a pediatrician specializing in critical care medicine who has been in practice for more than 20 years and by Ann F Schrooten the parent of a child born with a chronic complex condition who has more than 15 years of experience interacting with pediatric subspecialists and other healthcare professionals who cared for her son The editors have written commentaries to the stories to provide an independent perspective on the events and messages conveyed and to encourage reflection inquiry and discussion In addition to being a valuable resource for pediatricians pediatric subspecialists nurses and other healthcare professionals the book will also appeal to families of children living with complex medical conditions because it shares physician encounters and behaviors many have experienced in the care of their own children By giving a voice to both parents and physicians the goal is to create a bridge to better understanding that can improve communication minimize conflicts and foster trust and compassion among physicians patients and families Buffalo Medical Journal ,1910
