Doctrine Sacred Scriptures Holy Scripture:

The Doctrine of Sacred Scripture George Trumbull Ladd,1883 The Doctrine of Scripture Brad East,2021-08-27 When Holy Scripture is read aloud in the liturgy the church confesses with joy and thanksgiving that it has heard the word of the Lord What does it mean to make that confession And why does it occasion praise The doctrine of Scripture is a theological investigation into those and related questions and this book is an exploration of that doctrine It argues backward from the church's liturgical practice presupposing the truth of the Christian confession namely that the canon does in fact mediate the living word of the risen Christ to and for his people What must be true of the sacred texts of Old and New Testament alike for such confession and the practices of worship in which they are embedded to be warranted By way of an answer the book examines six aspects of the doctrine of Scripture its source nature attributes ends interpretation and authority The result is a catholic and ecumenical presentation of the historic understanding of the Bible common to the people of God across the centuries an understanding rooted in the church's sacred tradition in service to the gospel and redounding to the glory of the triune God A Commentary on the Holy Scriptures: Critical, Doctrinal, and Homiletical Johann Peter Lange,Philip Schaff,1868 A General Introduction to the Sacred Scriptures; in a Serie of Dissertations, Critical, Hermeneutical and Historical Joseph Dixon,2025-08-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage *Doctrine and Defense. Section Two William Evans,1912 The Great Doctrines of the Bible William Evans,2020-04-09 The doctrines treated in this book are dealt with from the standpoint of Biblical rather than Dogmatic theology This is evident from the plan which is followed in the work namely to gather together all the Scripture passages dealing with the subject under consideration and from them choose a required number that may be called representative then seek to understand the meaning of these references by the study of the text itself as well as its context and parallel passages and finally from the selected proof texts formulate the doctrinal teaching and place such results under appropriate headings The doctrines of God Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit are more fully dealt with than the doctrines which follow This is especially true of the doctrine of God The reason for this is to set forth the method pursued in these studies and to give a pattern for the study of the doctrines to follow William Evans The Great Doctrines of the Bible A Complete Body of Doctrinal and Practical Divinity John Gill,1796 Christian Dogmatics Carl E.
