

An abstract painting with a complex composition. The upper portion features a dark, swirling mass of purple and blue, with a small, stylized white figure of a person with arms raised. Below this, a large, horizontal, wavy band of brown and tan dominates the center. To the right, a face is partially visible, rendered in shades of green and yellow. The lower section is a mix of dark blue, black, and brown, with some lighter, more defined shapes. The overall style is expressive and layered, with various textures and colors blending into each other.

Psychoanalysis, Catastrophe & Social Action Robin McCoy Brooks, 2021-09-28 Winner of the IAJS Book Award 2023 for Best Applied Book This fascinating volume uses psychoanalytic theory to explore how political subjectivity comes about within the context of global catastrophe via the emergence of collective individuations through trans subjectivity Serving as a jumping off point to address the structural linkage between collective catastrophe subject group and political transformation trans subjectivity is the central tenet of the book conceptualized as a psyche social dynamic that initiates social transformation and which may be enhanced in the clinical setting Each chapter investigates a distinct manifestation of trans subjectivity in relation to various real world events as they manifest clinically in the analytic couple and within group processes The author builds her conceptual arguments through a psyche social reading of Kristeva's theory of signifiante sublimation Lacan's 1945 essay on collective logic Heidegger's secular reading of the apostle Paul's Christian revolution and Jean Badiou and Jung's conception of the neighbor within a differentiated humanity The book features clinical illustrations an auto ethnographic study of the emergence of an AIDS clinic an accounting of trans subjectivity in Black revolutionary events in the U S and an examination of some expressions of care that arose in response to the COVID 19 pandemic Psychoanalysis Catastrophe Social Action is important reading for psychoanalysts psycho dynamic based therapists psychologists group therapists philosophers and political activists

Philosophy After Nature Rosi Braidotti, Rick Dolphijn, 2017-06-23 The significant changes that have dominated the social and the scientific world over the last thirty years have brought about upheavals and critical re appraisals that have proved quite positive in fostering 21st century thought This interdisciplinary collection of state of the art essays offers innovative and thought provoking insights concerning contemporary philosophical and cultural reflection on the nature culture interaction Starting from the assumption that the binary opposition between the two terms has been replaced by a continuum of the two the volume explores both the terms of this new interaction and its implications Technology occupies a central place in the shift towards a nature cultural continuum but it is not the only factor The consequences of economic globalization notably the global spread of digital mediation also account for this change of perspective Last but not least the climate change issue and a renewed urgency around the state of the environmental crisis also contribute to bring the natural much closer to home Digital mediation has by now become a standard way to live and interact The electronic frontier has altered dramatically the practice of education and research especially in the Humanities and social sciences with direct consequences for the institutional practice and the methodology of these disciplinary fields This book aims to explore the implications of these complex shifts for the practice of critical thinking

The Future of Humanity Pavlina Radia, Sarah Fiona Winters, Laurie Kruk, 2019-08-12 What is the future of humanity What does it mean to be human in the posthuman age What responsibility does humankind have towards others and their environments How are the stories that humans tell themselves implicated in the very power asymmetries and eco political challenges that they bemoan Taking a cross disciplinary approach to the posthuman age the essays in this collection speak to the multifaceted geographies and counter geographies of humanity probing into the possible futures we face as planetary species Some of these include ecological issues generated by centuries of neglecting our environment s power asymmetries stemming from economic and cultural globalization violence and its affective politics informed by cultural ethnic and racial genocides religious disputes social inequities produced by consumerism gender normativity and the increasing impact of digital and AI artificial intelligence technology on the human body as well as historical socio political not to mention ethical relations

E-Co-Affectivity Marjolein Oele, 2020-04-01 E Co Affectivity is a philosophical investigation of affectivity in various forms of life photosynthesis and growth in plants touch and trauma in bird feathers the ontogenesis of human life through the placenta the bare interface of human skin and the porous materiality of soil Combining biology phenomenology Ancient Greek thought new materialisms environmental philosophy and affect studies Marjolein Oele thinks through the concrete living places that show the receptive responsive power of living beings to be affected and to affect She focuses on these localized interfaces to explain how affectivity emerges in places that are always evolving creative porous and fluid Every interface is material but is also more than its current materiality in cocreating place time and being After extensively describing the effects of the milieu and community within which each example of affectivity takes place in the final chapter Oele adds a prescriptive ethical lens that formulates a new epoch beyond the Anthropocene one that is sensitive to the larger ecological communal concerns at stake
