

A detailed illustration of a white bird, possibly a swan or a large gull, in flight. The bird is shown from a side profile, facing right, with its wings fully extended. The feathers are meticulously drawn, showing individual plumes and their arrangement. The bird's head is turned slightly towards the viewer, revealing a dark eye and a long, pointed beak. Its legs are tucked under its body, and its feet are visible, showing sharp claws. The background is a solid, deep blue, which makes the white bird stand out prominently. The overall composition is dynamic and elegant.
