Disabilities and Disorders in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto, Rajinder Garcha, Mark Horan, 2009-09-01 This reference volume identifies almost 1 000 resources to help educators professionals parents siblings guardians and students understand the various disabilities and disorders faced by children today

Critical Thinking in Diagnosis and Therapy of Cognitive and Behavioral Disorders Kadhm, Sherouk J., 2025-08-12 Critical thinking is a cornerstone of modern psychological practice offering transformative potential in the diagnosis and therapy of cognitive and behavioral disorders In an era marked by rapid advancements in mental health sciences traditional diagnostic and therapeutic methods often fall short of addressing the nuanced challenges faced by practitioners The integration of critical thinking into these processes introduces a paradigm shift enhancing precision reducing misdiagnoses and fostering individualized treatment plans Critical Thinking in Diagnosis and Therapy of Cognitive and Behavioral Disorders explores the integration between critical thinking and psychological diagnosis and therapy This book emphasizes the importance of adopting critical thinking in clinical settings which can lead to enhanced diagnostic tools and more precise treatment protocols Covering topics such as psychology mental health and diagnosis this book is an excellent resource for psychologists psychiatrists educators psychometricians and mental health counselors who aim to refine their diagnostic and therapeutic methods

Disability Research Today Tom Shakespeare, 2015-03-05 Grouped around four central themes illness and impairment disabling processes care and control and communication and representations this collection offers a fresh perspective on disability research showing how theory and data can be brought together in new and exciting ways Disability Research Today starts by showing how engaging with issues around illness and impairment is vital to a multidisciplinary understanding of disability as a social process The second section explores factors that affect disabled people such as homelessness violence and unemployment The third section turns to social care and how disabled people are prevented from living with independence and dignity Finally the last section examines how different imagery and technology impacts our understandings of disability and deafness Showcasing empirical work from a range of countries including Japan Norway Italy Australia India the UK Turkey Finland and Iceland this collection shows how disability studies can be simultaneously sophisticated accessible and policy relevant Disability Research Today is suitable for students and researchers in disability studies sociology social policy social work nursing and health studies

Rethinking Social Issues in Education for the 21st Century Sylvia Horton, Wendy Sims-Schouten, 2016-12-14 This book revisits key social issues and controversies in education There are many social issues currently on political and governmental agendas both in the UK and other countries from safeguarding childhood obesity bullying and mental health through to widening participation Some of these issues relate to children and young people and are of concern to those working and researching in education while others relate to Higher Education The boundaries between the academic disciplines of politics sociology economics psychology and education are porous The contributions here illustrate how common interests and collaboration can assist in our understanding of complex social issues the evaluation of current governmental responses and the promotion of ideas about the way forward into the 21st century

The Dubai International Conference in Higher Education 2013 Daniel R. Judd, How Children Learn from Parents and Parenting Others in Formal and Informal Settings: International and Cultural Perspectives, volume II Yvette Renee Harris ,Claudio Longobardi,2025-12-01 This Research Topic is the second volume of the Research Topic How Children Learn from Parents and Parenting Others in Formal and Informal Settings International and Cultural Perspectives Please see the first volume here For several decades parent child cognitive interaction researchers have acknowledged that children learn cognitive skills in the context of their social and early environments These cognitive skills are often imparted to the children by parents or parenting others in formal or informal settings Thus for example such informal settings as dinner table conversations walks through grocery stores museums or neighborhoods become rich laboratories for children to learn varied cognitive skills ranging from numeracy concepts and language The way in which those learning opportunities are provided by parents structured by parents and scaffolded by parents may well vary depending on culture and other socio demographic variables and may well vary depending on formal or informal settings The aim of this Research Topic is to bring together scholarship from both global north and global south contexts which explores how children learn via parental involvement in formal and informal settings To this end we are soliciting manuscripts from researchers which focus on examining the strategies that parents use as they engage their children in learning interactions address how they scaffold those interactions and consider how children participate in those interaction and move beyond laboratory observations to more naturalistic contexts for children learning through parent interaction Please note contributions can be of many different article types including Original Research Methods Opinion Hypothesis Theory etc

Research for Inclusive Quality Education Christopher Boyle,Kelly-Ann Allen,2022-11-10 This book explores contemporary perspectives and research on inclusion providing a platform for discussing inclusion at an international level and its intersections with belonging and equity How inclusion is defined and applied between schools districts and even countries can vary markedly thus an international understanding of inclusion is urgently needed Experts from several countries in different regions present the latest research in the field of inclusion and provide practices and strategies guided by empirical research to address some of these issues Schools are contextual organisations that represent the broader society culture and values in which they reside Thus how inclusion is practised at the society level has an implication on schools The way we think about inclusion has shifted dramatically in the last decade we now recognise that inclusion represents a broad spectrum of racial ethnic cultural and sexual diversity that is seen in almost all modern schools This book presents international perspectives and research on inclusion belonging and equity to work towards a more consistent collaborative and global understanding

Social Policy, Service Users and Carers Clive Sealey,Joy Fillingham,Peter Unwin,2022-01-12 This textbook provides a greater understanding of the lived effect that social policies have on service users and carers While service user and carer involvement has become more and more prominent in social policy over recent years it is rarely the case that the perspectives of service users and carers goes beyond consultation to truly meaningful involvement and co production This book is unique in that it has ten substantive co produced chapters with service users and carers who have direct lived experiences of social policies The chapters include lived experiences of direct payments domestic violence and abuse looked after children being a foster carer receiving long term health and social care welfare to work mental health the transition to leaving care and being a carer The ground breaking textbook draws on these lived experiences to highlight key lessons that are relevant to social policy and will provide an impetus towards changes to make such policies better support service users and carers We hope that this book will inspire academics policy makers students and practitioners but most importantly it will encourage service users and carers to come forward with their own narratives to further shape social policy
