City of Demons Dayna S. Kalleres, 2015-10-13 Although it would appear in studies of late antique ecclesiastical authority and power that scholars have covered everything an important aspect of the urban bishop has long been neglected his role as demonologist and exorcist When the emperor Constantine made Christianity the official religion of the realm bishops and priests everywhere struggled to Christianize the urban spaces still dominated by Greco Roman monuments and festivals During this period of upheaval when congregants seemingly attended everything but their own orthodox church many ecclesiastical leaders began simultaneously to promote aggressive and insidious depictions of the demonic In City of Demons Dayna S Kalleres investigates this developing discourse and the church sponsored rituals that went along with it showing how shifting ecclesiastical demonologies and evolving practices of exorcism profoundly shaped Christian life in the fourth century Penguin Classics Penguin (Firm),2005 Rhetoric and the Writing of History, 400-1500 Matthew Kempshall,2011-08-31 This book provides an analytical overview of the vast range of historiography which was produced in western Europe over a thousand year period between c 400 and c 1500 Concentrating on the general principles of classical rhetoric central to the language of this writing alongside the more familiar traditions of ancient history biblical exegesis and patristic theology this survey introduces the conceptual sophistication and semantic rigour with which medieval authors could approach their narratives of past and present events and the diversity of ends to which this history could then be put By providing a close reading of some of the historians who put these linguistic principles and strategies into practice from Augustine and Orosius through Otto of Freising and William of Malmesbury to Machiavelli and Guicciardini it traces and questions some of the key methodological changes that characterise the function and purpose of the western historiographical tradition in this formative period of its development Penguin Classics Complete Annotated Catalog Penguin Books,2003 Early Christian Writings Various,1987-09-01 The writings in this volume cast a glimmer of light upon the emerging traditions and organization of the infant church during an otherwise little known period of its development A selection of letters and small scale theological treatises from a group known as the Apostolic Fathers several of whom were probably disciples of the Apostles they provide a first hand account of the early Church and outline a form of early Christianity still drawing on the theology and traditions of its parent religion Judaism Included here are the first Epistle of Bishop Clement of Rome an impassioned plea for harmony The Epistle of Polycarp The Epistle of Barnabas The Didache and the Seven Epistles written by Ignatius of Antioch among them his moving appeal to the Romans that they grant him a martyr's death For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Early Christianity Ian Hazlett,1991 The American Benedictine Review ,2020 Sobornost ,2000 Union Catalog of the Graduate Theological Union Graduate Theological Union. presented in their respective political social ecclesiastical and cultural contexts and are organized in terms of bibliographies editions English translations ancillary sources and relevant literature Jacket Habitus and the Discipline of Reading in Late Medieval England Katharine Helen Breen, 2003 International Kierkegaard Commentary: Upbuilding discourses in various spirits Robert L. Meeting, 1998 The Early Church in Eastern England Margaret Gallyon, 1973 Sacred Time in Early Christian Ireland Patricia M. Rumsey, 2007-10 Francisca Rumsey uses two case studies from early Christian Ireland the Naugatio sancti Brendani abbatis and the Rules of the C li D to demonstrate two different ways of understanding sacred time One sees time as part of a good and holy creation and therefore intrinsically good in itself the other sees time as part of a fallen world needing redemption and therefore in need of sanctification The C li D are often presented as part of a reform movement in early Irish monasticism This question of monastic reform is explored in detail to show that the received position regarding the C li D is inaccurate In fact in the specific issue of liturgical prayer their approach was innovative to the point of idiosyncrasy
