Retelling Stories, Framing Culture John Stephens, Robyn McCallum, 2013-01-11 What happens to traditional stories when they are retold in another time and cultural context and for a different audience This first of its kind study discusses Bible stories classical myths heroic legends Arthurian romances Robin Hood lore folk tales oriental tales and other stories derived from European cultures One chapter is devoted to various retellings of classics from Shakespeare to Wind in the Willows The authors offer a general theory of what motivates the retelling of stories and how stories express the aspirations of a society An important function of stories is to introduce children to a cultural heritage and to transmit a body of shared allusions and experiences that expresses a society's central values and assumptions However the cultural heritage may be modified through a pervasive tendency of retellings to produce socially conservative outcomes because of ethnocentric androcentric and class based assumptions in the source stories that persist into retellings Therefore some stories such as classical myths are particularly resistant to feminist reinterpretations for example while other types such as folktales are more malleable In examining such possibilities the book evaluates the processes of interpretation apparent in retellings Index included

Myth and Environmentalism Esther Sánchez-Pardo, María Porras Sánchez, 2023-07-05 This volume traces the interconnections between myth environmentalism narrative poetry comics and innovative artistic practice using this as a framework through which to examine strategies for repairing our unhealthy relationship with the planet Challenging late capitalist modes encouraging mindless consumption and the degradation of human nature relations this collection advocates a re evaluation of the ethical relation to living with and sharing the Earth Myth and the environment have shared a rich common cultural history travelling as far back as the times of storytelling and legend with the environment often the central theme Following a robust introduction the book is organized into three main sections Myth Disaster and Present Day Views on Ecological Damage Indigenous and Afro diasporic Myths and Ecological Knowledge Art Practices Myth and Environmental Resilience and concludes with a Coda from Jeanette Hart Mann The methodology draws from diverse perspectives such as ecocriticism new materialism and Anthropocene studies offering a truly interdisciplinary discussion that reflects on the dialogue among environment and myth and a broad range of contributions are included from Canada the United States the Caribbean Ukraine Japan Morocco and Brazil The book joins a long line of approaches on the interrelations between ecological and mythical thinking and criticism that goes back to the early 20th century This volume will be of interest to students scholars activists and experts in environmental humanities myth and myth criticism literature and art on more than human and nature interaction ecocriticism environmental activism and climate change

Syllabus for a Course in Literature for Children Detroit Teachers College,1928 Muthos Loren D. Marsh,2021-04-12 This book presents a new analysis of Aristotle s concept of narrative in the Poetics Arguing that the term muthos in the Poetics cannot be understood as equivalent to plot Marsh shows that the muthos concept is instead a useful tool for grouping larger sets of narratives based on specific criteria The results of this muthos analysis indicate that in the classical period neither formal structure nor the structure of events was determined by theatrical genre but by the specific combination of tone and plot type Marsh concludes that the category of genre itself may be less helpful for classifying these plays than is typically assumed

Don't Know Much About® Mythology Kenneth C. Davis,2009-12-29 In this fascinating installment of the New York Times bestselling

Don't Know Much About series Kenneth C Davis explores the great myths of the world and their implications for art science religion and culture throughout history What is an Egyptian pyramid doing on the U S dollar bill Did a pharaoh inspire Moses to worship one God What's a Canaanite demoness doing at a rock concert Since the beginning of time people have been insatiably curious They've asked questions about where we come from why the stars shine and the seasons change and what constitutes evil The imaginative answers crafted by our ancestors have served as religion science philosophy and popular literature In an engaging and delightfully irreverent question and answer style Davis tackles the epic of Gilgamesh Achilles and the Trojan War Stonehenge and the Druids Odin Thor and the entire Norse pantheon Native American myths and much more including the dramatic life and times of the man who would be Buddha From Mount Olympus to Machu Picchu here is an insightful lively look at the greatest stories ever told In the Beginning Bernard F. Batto, 2013-05-01 Bernard F Batto spent the bulk of his career examining the ancient Near Eastern context of the Hebrew Bible with particular interest in the influence of the surrounding cultures on the biblical creation stories This collection gathers six of his most important previously published essays and adds two new contributions Among the essays Batto identifies various creation motifs prevalent in the ancient Near East and investigates the reflexes of these motifs in Genesis 1:1 and other biblical accounts of the primeval period He demonstrates how the biblical writers adapted and responded to the creation ideas of Mesopotamia Egypt Ugarit and elsewhere The articles in the volume were written as independent essays Nevertheless they are united by theme Throughout Batto makes clear his understanding of the Hebrew Bible as a patently unique text yet one that cannot possibly be understood independent of greater cultural sphere in which it developed In the Beginning will serve as an indispensable resource for those interested in both the biblical ideas of creation and the mythology of the ancient Near East that influenced them Technologies of Memory in the Arts L. Plate, A. Smelik, 2009-05-14 In this collection of essays a range of scholars from different disciplines look through the prism of technology at the much debated notion of cultural memory analysing how the past is shaped or unsettled by cultural texts including visual art literature cinema photographs and souvenirs Stories from the Greek Myths Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1912 Myth and Knowing: An Introduction to World Mythology Scott A. Leonard, Michael McClure, 2004 Myth and Knowing is by far the most comprehensive world mythology textbook The text reader format provides both jargon free discussions of current themes and thinkers in the ongoing scholarly conversation about myth and a broad selection of complete myths chosen for literary merit and the cultural sensitivity of their translations Rather than being genre driven the book emphasizes the psychological religious and cultural meanings of myth presenting these with the intent of fostering in students a love of literature Prentice Hall Literature: Tvt Fifth Edition Student Edition Grade 10 2000c Prentice-Hall Staff, 1999-12 The Young Folks' Library: A book of famous myths and legends, 1901 Handbook of Classical Mythology William F. Hansen, 2004-06-10 An introduction to the mythological world of the Greeks and the Romans combined with a chronology of myths and a dictionary of key characters objects and events Handbook of Classical Mythology offers newcomers and long time enthusiasts new ways to navigate the world of Greek and Roman myths Written by a foremost mythologist the book begins by exploring the sources and landscapes from which the myths emerged It then provides a richly detailed timeline of mythic episodes from the creation of the cosmos to the end of the Heroic Age plus an illustrated mythological dictionary listing every significant character place event and object Whether exploring the world that gave rise to ancient mythology or researching a specific piece of the whole the handbook is the best introduction available to the extraordinary cast of these tales gods nymphs satyrs monsters heroes and the natural and supernatural stages upon which their fates are played out Beginning to Fly Merrill Hamburg, 1928
