Geographies of Mobilities Tim Cresswell, Peter Merriman, 2011 Geographers have always had an interest in mobility but as yet they have not viewed this in the same mobility turn as in other disciplines where it has been used to critique the standard approaches to the subjects This text brings together leading academics to provide a revitalised geography of mobilities informed by this wider mobility turn It makes connections between the seemingly disparate sub disciplinary worlds of migration transport and tourism suggesting that each has much to learn from each other through the ontological and epistemological concern for mobility The Routledge Handbook of Mobilities Peter Adey, David Bissell, Kevin Hannam, Peter Merriman, Mimi Sheller, 2014-01-10 The 21st century seems to be on the move perhaps even more so than the last With cheap travel and more than two billion cars projected worldwide for 2030 And yet all this mobility is happening incredibly unevenly at different paces and intensities with varying impacts and consequences to the extent that life on the move might be actually quite difficult to sustain environmentally socially and ethically As a result mobility has become a keyword of the social sciences delineating a new domain of concepts approaches methodologies and techniques which seek to understand the character and quality of these trends This Handbook explores and critically evaluates the debates approaches controversies and methodologies inherent to this rapidly expanding discipline It brings together leading specialists from range of backgrounds and geographical regions to provide an authoritative and comprehensive overview of this field conveying cutting edge research in an accessible way whilst giving detailed grounding in the evolution of past debates on mobilities It illustrates disciplinary trends and pathways from migration studies and transport history to communications research featuring methodological innovations and developments and conceptual histories from feminist theory to tourist studies It explores the dominant figures of mobility from children to soldiers and the mobility impaired the disparate materialities of mobility such as flows of water and waste to the vectors of viruses key infrastructures such as logistics systems to the informal services of megacity slums and the important mobility events around which our world turns from going on vacation to the commute to the catastrophic disruption of mobility systems The text is forward thinking projecting the future of mobilities as they might be lived transformed and studied and possibly brought to an end International in focus the book transcends disciplinary and national boundaries to explore mobilities as they are understood from different perspectives different fields countries and standpoints This is an invaluable resource for all those with an interest in mobility across disciplinary boundaries and areas of study Mobilities and Cosmopolitanisms in African and Afrodiasporic Literatures Anna-Leena Toivanen, 2021-03-01 In Mobilities and Cosmopolitanisms in African and Afrodiasporic Literatures Anna Leena Toivanen explores the representations and relationship of mobilities and cosmopolitanisms in Franco and Anglophone African and Afrodiasporic literary texts from the 1990s to the 2010s Representations of mobility practices are discussed against three categories of cosmopolitanism reflecting the privileged pragmatic and critical aspects of the concept The main scientific contribution of Toivanen's book is its attempt to enhance dialogue between postcolonial literary studies and mobilities research. The book criticises reductive understandings of mobility as a synonym for migration and problematises frequently made links between mobility and cosmopolitanism. Mobilities and Cosmopolitanisms adopts a comparative approach to Franco and Anglophone African and Afrodiasporic literatures often discussed separately despite their common themes and parallel paths. Mobility, Sociability and Well-being of Urban Living Donggen Wang, Shenjing He, 2015-12-16. This book investigates critical urban issues related to socio-spatial segregation, housing, daily travel, mobility of the elderly etc. from the perspective of wellbeing. This is a collection of the latest research works by frontline researchers working in the fields of geography, urban studies, transport and sociology. Drawing on theoretical and empirical explorations, collected chapters in this book connect mobility and wellbeing, bridge geography and health and analyze the implications of mobility disadvantages on urban marginal groups' wellbeing. Research findings presented in the book are also highly relevant for practitioners and policy makers in the pursuit of improving urban livability since wellbeing or quality of life is increasingly considered as an important criteria alternative to income growth to evaluate economic, social and urban development.

Lifestyle Mobilities Tara Duncan, Scott A. Cohen, Maria Thulemark, 2016-05-06. Being mobile in today's world is influenced by many aspects including transnational ties, increased ease of access to transport, growing accessibility to technology, knowledge and information and changing socio-cultural outlooks and values. These factors can all engender a re-formation of our everyday life and moving as and for lifestyle has in many ways become both easier and much more complex. This book highlights the crossroads between concepts of lifestyle and the growing body of work on mobilities. The study of lifestyle offers a lens through which to study the kinds of moorings, dwellings, repetitions and routines around which mobilities become socially, culturally and politically meaningful. Bringing together scholars from geography, sociology, tourism, history and beyond, the authors illustrate the breadth and richness of mobilities research through the concept of lifestyle. Organised into four sections, the book begins by dealing with aspects of bodily performance through lifestyle mobility. Section two then looks at how we can use mobile methods within social research whilst section three explores issues surrounding ideas of mobility, immobility and belonging. Finally, section four draws together a number of chapters that focus on the complexities of identity within mobility. Often drawing on ethnographic research, contributors all share one common feature: they are at the forefront of research into lifestyle mobilities. Blue Horizons Nataša Rogelja, 2017-02-01. As a result of opening of internal borders within the EU and rapid development of affordable navigation technology, there is a constantly increasing number of people in the Mediterranean who have adopted a lifestyle that revolves around living, working and traveling on sailing boats. On the ground of ethnography among liveaboards in Greece, the book discusses the following questions: How can we conceptualise these novel forms of movements that seem to sit uncomfortably in between the standard dichotomized division of work within migration studies and wider social sciences: internal, international, migration, temporary, permanent, migration?

tourism How do we theoretically and methodologically situate these individuals that are statistically often invisible and seem to evade the common categories of describing a mobile person such as migrant or tourist In order to answer these questions the author explores ethnographically the connection between the maritime environment sea imaginaries and lifestyle migration It puts forward six crew portraits in order to highlight details from individuals lives on a longer time perspective but also to place the individual stories sea imaginaries and people s experiences with the maritime environment in dialogue with each other This makes it possible to better understand the expectations aspirations and experiences of maritime lifestyle migrants and to discuss further the idea of temporarily unbelonging in practice _____ Z odprtjem internih mej v EU in zavoljo hitrega razvoja lahko dostopne navigacijske tehnologije je v okviru Mediterana opaziti nara anje tevila ljudi iz zahodne Evrope ki so razvili poseben ivljenjski stil zdru evanje dela potovanja in vsakdanjega ivljenja na jadrnicah V knjigi so etnografsko osvetljena slede a vpra anja Kako konceptualizirati te nove oblike gibanj ki zavzemajo neudobno vmesno pozicijo med standardnimi dihotomijami znotraj migracijskih tudij kot tudi ir e dru benih ved notranje mednarodne migracije za asne trajne migracije migracije turizem Kako teoreti no in metodolo ko umestiti tovrstne posameznike ki so statisti no pogosto nevidni in za katere se zdi da se uspejo izognejo standardnim kategorizacijam mobilnih oseb migrant turist V iskanju odgovorov na zgoraj zastavljena vpra anja avtorica s pomo jo etnografske metode raziskuje povezavo med morjem imaginariji morja in ivljenjsko stilskimi migracijami V ospredje postavlja est etnografskih portretov skozi katere osvetljuje podrobnosti iz ivljenj posameznikov v dalj em asovnem obdobju imaginarije morja in fizi ne izku nje z morskim okoljem Na ta na in lahko bolje razumem pri akovanja aspiracije in izku nje pomorskih ivljenjsko stilskih migrantov in poglobimo razprave o za asnem nepripadanju v praksi _____

Postcolonial Translocations Marga Munkelt, Markus Schmitz, Mark Stein, Silke Stroh, 2013 The sites from which postcolonial cultural articulations develop and the sites at which they are received have undergone profound transformations within the last decades This book traces the accelerating emergence of cultural crossovers and overlaps in a global perspective and through a variety of disciplinary approaches It starts from the premise that after the spatial turn human action and cultural representations can no longer be grasped as firmly located in or clearly demarcated by territorial entities The collection of essays investigates postcolonial articulations of various genres and media in their spatiality and locatedness while envisaging acts of location as dynamic cultural processes It explores the ways in which critical spatial thinking can be made Productive Testing the uses and limitations of translocation as an open exploratory model for a critically spatialized postcolonial studies it covers a wide range of cultural expressions from the anglophone world and beyond literature film TV photography and other forms of visual art philosophy historical memory and tourism The extensive introductory chapter charts various facets of spatial thinking from a variety of disciplines and critically discusses their implications for postcolonial studies The Contributors essays range from theoretical interventions into the critical routines of postcolonial criticism to case studies of specific cultural texts objects and events reflecting temporal and spatial material and intellectual physical and spiritual mobility What emerges is a fascinating survey of the multiple directions postcolonial translocations can take in the future This book is aimed at students and scholars of postcolonial literary and cultural studies diaspora studies migration studies transnational studies globalisation studies critical space studies urban studies film studies media studies art history philosophy history and anthropology Contributors Diana Brydon Lars Eckstein Paloma Fresno Calleja Lucia Kr mer Gesa Mackenthun Thomas Martinek Sandra Meyer Therese M Meyer Marga Munkelt Lynda Ng Claudia Perner Katharina Rennhak Gundo Rial y Costas Markus Schmitz Mark Stein Silke Stroh Kathy Ann Tan Petra Tournay Theodotou Daria Tunca Jessica Voges Roland Walter Dirk Wiemann Migrant and Tourist Encounters Andrea Easley Morris, 2020-05-13 Migrant and Tourist Encounters The Ethics of Im mobility in 21st Century Dominican and Cuban Cultures analyzes the effects of clashing flows of voluntary and involuntary travelers to and from these countries due to an increase in migration and tourism during the last three decades I compare the ways in which literary works and films reflect on and critique the power relations and ethics of im mobility and encounter both on the islands and in destinations abroad The works draw attention to the interconnectedness of migration tourism and other forms of travel as well as immobility and portray growing local and global inequalities through characters disparate access to free voluntary movement I consider how the works respond to the question of the moral potential of encounters produced by im mobilities and the possibility of connection across differences I argue that Dominican and Cuban artists not only critique neo colonial paradigms of power and im mobility but envision and enact strategies for belonging and in some cases suggest a path toward de colonial cosmopolitanism Everyday Mobile Belonging Kirsty Finn, Mark Holton, 2019-06-13 This book presents a framework for a new kind of thinking about student mobilities and belonging which foregrounds the everyday and rhythmic dimensions of students experiences Using case studies from a variety of UK higher education contexts this book develops the concepts of everyday mobilities and mobile belongingness The authors draw on key ideas about the changing characteristics of UK higher education and of student belonging exploring the central themes of the sensory affective and emotional aspects of student mobilities contested and mobile belongings and the significance of everyday life to bring a new dimension to the literature on inter and intra national student mobilities This is achieved through an examination of the innovative ways in which social science methods have been re imagined through mobility with a specific focus on youth and education Kirsty Finn and Mark Holton bring together theory and research from the fields of education studies geography and sociology and combine this with a discussion of rich empirical data from three UK based research projects to set out an explicitly mobility centred approach to 21st century student experiences The findings can be recognised globally because they synthesise debates about travel and transport students sense of place and feelings of belonging and the interrelationship between physical social and virtual mobilities that higher education brings together In doing so this text offers a coherent and grounded campaign for theory and research within studies of higher education that foreground multiple mobilities and
