Music Learning and Teaching in Infancy, Childhood, and Adolescence Gary McPherson, Graham Welch, 2018-04-26

Music Learning and Teaching in Infancy Childhood and Adolescence is one of five paperback books derived from the foundational two volume Oxford Handbook of Music Education Designed for music teachers students and scholars of music education as well as educational administrators and policy makers the second book in this set explores a broad array of key issues concepts and debates related to music learning and teaching in three phases of a child s development The first section provides an expanded view of infancy and early childhood embracing a key theme that most young children s early music making is improvised and used to communicate with others and the self These chapters demonstrate the importance of motherese or parentese to young children s overall development the extraordinary diversity and richness of children s early musical engagement and how this can be viewed as a resource for further learning The second section is devoted to the learning and teaching of music during the middle years of childhood when music is often a mandated part of the school curriculum While recognizing the enormous cultural and national differences chapters in this section give an overview of many varied and innovative forms of musical learning and teaching globally The authors address issues related to the types of teachers who provide music instructions to children internationally how they were educated and trained and how various nations organize their curriculum in ways that provide children with access and opportunities to engage with music in the classroom The third section focuses on the musical experiences and development of adolescents aged 12 to 18 These chapters explore the role of music in the lives of young people including how they use and relate to music how music educators can best meet students needs and the types of musical engagement that can either empower or disempower students through involvement in school music Contributors Mayumi Adachi Randall Everett Allsup Janet R Barrett Margaret S Barrett Brydie Leigh Bartleet Lily Chen Hafteck Richard Colwell Sharon G Davis George M DeGraffenreid Steven C Dillon Magne I Espeland Martin Fautley Eve Harwood Lee Higgins Beatriz Ilari Neryl Jeanneret Chee Hoo Lum Stephen Malloch Esther Mang Kathryn Marsh Gary E McPherson Oscar Odena Chris Philpott S Alex Ruthmann Eric Shieh Gary Spruce Johannella Tafuri Sandra E Trehub Colwyn Trevarthen Kari K Veblen Graham F Welch Heidi Westerlund Jackie Wiggins Ruth Wright Susan Young

21st Century Innovation in Music Education Kun Astuti, Gary McPherson, Bambang Sugeng, Nila Kurniasari, Tutut Herawan, Christopher Drake, Ashadi, Endah Retnowati, Adi Cilik Pierewan, 2019-11-27

Music is an expression of feelings of the soul conveyed through the medium of sound But not all sounds are music It might be said that only an organised sound or series of sounds can be called music Thus music is connected to the eternal and constant flow and order of the universe to the laws and rhythms of nature It can also be said that musical order is comparable to the natural order of the universe There are laws of a certain nature in the natural sciences and likewise in music there are structures and procedures or even rules that should be followed to produce beautiful music The International Conference Innovations for

21st Century Music Education and Research provided a timely opportunity to take stock of the latest developments in music education and brought together educators researchers and members of the broader community in a welcoming forum in which they were able to express theoretical and practical views concepts research results and principles to help support the further development of music education

Learning to Teach Music in the Secondary School Chris Philpott, 2001 Learning to Teach Music in the Secondary School is intended to support student teachers newly qualified teachers and more experienced music teachers in their professional development Topics covered include the place of music in the curriculum the nature of musical learning planning managing and assessing musical learning school examinations and music music outside of the curriculum One of the main premises of the book is that music needs to be taught musically with specific reference to both the nature of music itself and its metaphorical significance It is important that music itself guides what goes on in the music classroom if we are to motivate our pupils and help them to fulfil their potential as musicians This book will help student teachers to develop their subject knowledge teaching skills understanding of the wider issues and their ability to reflect on classroom practice
